

Ascot United Football Club

FA Charter Standard Community Club

Streaming Definition:

Streaming is an approach designed to ensure that players are placed in a team that best matches their ability and development level within their age group. By doing so, we aim to optimize each player's growth and provide a supportive environment that suits their individual needs.

Streaming can work in both directions, allowing players to move upstream or downstream as their development and needs evolve.